LAURA BARON with special guest PAT QUINN

Jazz, Blues and Swing in Celebration of Earth Day

Laura Baron is renowned for her passionate delivery, her beautifully crafted songs and expressive jazz and folk vocals. Considered one of the premiere singer songwriters in the mid-Atlantic region, Laura has received multiple awards for her recordings. "A Little Note" recently received the Song of The Year Award and was recently released as a music video. She will be joined by jazz bassist, guitarist and singer Pat Quinn.

MARK JASTER

Tuesday, May 10, 2016 ~ 12:15 pm

MARK JASTER: THE MAESTRO!

Music, Mirth & Merriment in the Month of May

In the tradition of Charlie Chaplin, Buster Keaton, and the circus of yesteryear, this high-energy show features an eccentric mute conductor who makes musical mayhem with the audience as his orchestra. Inspired by the great musical clowns of the early 20th century like Grock and The Fratellini Brothers, The Maestro is guaranteed to please all ages!

All concerts FREE and open to the public.
Lunch is available at 12 noon with advance reservations.
